

For immediate release

Dennis S. Murray, Sr.
(202) 213-1259
(770) 770-0958

Rural Youth Organizational Summit; Stone Mountain, Georgia

Stone Mountain, Georgia (May 24, 2006), On June 3-4, 2006 the Youth Development and Capacity Building, Inc. of Dacula, Georgia, is hosting the Rural Youth Organizational Summit for youth community base organizations leaders, and youth leaders across the country at the Country Inn & Suites, 1852 Rockbridge Road, Stone Mountain, GA 30087.

The theme of the Summit:

- Moving the Community youth organizations forward through Education Empowerment , Employment, Youth and Adults Sharing Experiences, Skills development, and Dreams to continue the development of their youth families and communities.
- Embracing Youth in POWER

The summit will bring youth organizational leaders, community base organizations, government, and private sector together to discuss the problems that face our youth organizations in there community. The agenda discussion will target areas for funding, educational resources, program development, program marketing, project initiatives, and more. This years sponsors are: USDA, Farm Service Agency; USDA, NRCS; USDA, Office of Civil Rights and Outreach; USDA, Small Farms Coordination; A Call To Living, Atlanta;

We encourage all that are on the agenda and participants to participate in this 2006 Youth Summit. Our intention is to impact youth organizations nationwide while descending on Stone Mountain, GA for a cohesive self-empowerment summit. Should you need additional information regarding Youth Initiatives 2006-2007 please visit our web site www.ydacbinc.org or email Dennis S. Murray, Sr. or call 770 903-5446.